Course Outline

Rapid Recovery Administration
Module 1: Product Overview

Description:

This course covers the key features of Rapid Recovery and how Rapid Recovery fits the need for backup and disaster recovery.

Training Delivery Modality:

This course is offered as self-paced web-based training.

Intended Audience:

Quest customers, partners and employees.

Prerequisites:

The following prerequisites are recommended for this course:

- Working knowledge of system administration in a Windows or Linux based operating environment
- Familiarity with basic backup and retrieval concepts and theories
- General knowledge of networking and storage concepts and terminology

Duration:

Approximately 30 minutes.

Course Objectives:

This course has the following objectives:

- The business need for disaster recovery
- The unique approach of Rapid Recovery to protect data
- The key features of Rapid Recovery for recovering data